

Miss Rachael Culpan - Governor

I have built a career in Human Resources within global organisations in retail, distribution and financial technology sectors. I specialise in employee experience and process improvement in Europe, Asia Pacific and The Americas.

I am keen to support career discussions and help change stereotypical employment trends.

Outside of work I volunteer weekly for a youth organisation supporting extracurricular learning and development.