

Year 7 & Year 8

Recommended Reading

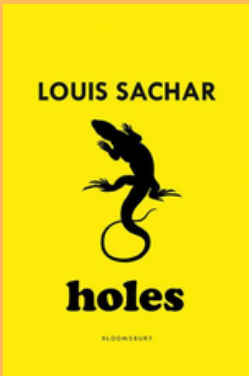

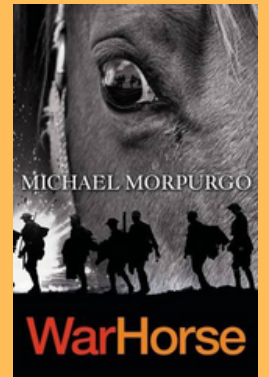

A Good Girl's Guide to Murder by Holly Jackson

When Pippa "Pip" Fitz-Amobi picks a closed murder case for her school project, she thinks it's just academic—until she starts digging deeper. Convinced the supposedly guilty boyfriend didn't do it, she teams up with his brother Ravi. As they uncover secrets and suspect everyone, it turns dangerous—and thrillingly twisty! Told through interviews, logs, and transcripts, it's a fresh, immersive mystery that keeps you guessing.

War Horse by Michael Morpurgo

Joey is a young farm horse whose world is turned upside down when he's sold to the cavalry and sent to the trenches of World War I. His owner, 15-year-old Albert, refuses to lose hope—and sets off on an emotional journey to find Joey and bring him home. A powerful story about courage, friendship, and loyalty during wartime that will tug at your heartstrings.

Holes by Louis Sachar

Stanley Yelnats is sent to Camp Green Lake, a dry Texas camp, for a crime he didn't commit. Every day he's forced to dig a hole—until he realises there's more to the digging than punishment. Between camp life and tales from the past, he uncovers mysteries linking his family curse, infamous outlaw Kate Barlow, and friendship. Funny, mysterious, and deeply satisfying—this award-winning adventure is a must-read.

